

ornateinteriors

We have a flexible approach and can offer any combination of services to suit your project.

We are highly skilled in a range of plastering methods, using contemporary or traditional materials.

Working with architects and interior designers for over 30 years we are committed to providing the quality products and service needed to help you realise your project ideas.